SUMMARY DESCRIPTION

I am an experienced Energy Professional with a strong finance background. I have worked in local and international contests focusing on the development of Energy Business through Clients based and Proprietary activities. Most recently I have joined the Commodity Sales Team at Intesa Sanpaolo Bank advising European and MENA clients on Energy hedging, funding optimisations and bespoke structured transactions. Previous to that I have set up a South European Gas Trading Business leveraging on Proprietary Risk Exposures, Cross Border and Storage Optimisation. Throughout my career I have managed and overseen full-cycle bespoke deals from Origination and Structuring to Execution and Risk Management.
